

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

Agenda

2020 Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting will take place via Zoom.

Times are given in CET (Prague time), it means UT + 1 hour.

Time	Session	Session Description	Speakers
26th October, Monday
Country Coordinators Meeting – only for CCs and DCCs
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of CCs	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants for the day
14:00 – 14:45	Opening of Country Coordinators meeting	Welcome by organizers Agenda overview GLOBE Program updates Results of the Board elections and introduction of the new members RM 2021 in Prague	RCO, GIO, Board and guests
14:45 – 15:30	Education in COVID-19 times – what we learnt and how GLOBE can contribute	Exchange of ideas of digital learning, distant learning, online cooperative learning approaches and possibly also community building and how GLOBE with its digital resources can contribute. Discussion in break out rooms	All participants Board Members as group facilitators
15 min	Break
15:45 – 17:15	Good Practice from Countries (November 2019-October 2020)	Discussion based on the examples of GLOBE good practice that CCs post on a Padlet board ahead of the RM. Post 1-3 contributions from your country to the Padlet prior to the meeting! https://padlet.com/ee_region_globe/2020_good_practice_countries	All participants

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

Time	Session	Session Description	Speakers
27th October, Tuesday GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 14:30	Opening of the Regional Meeting	Introduction of participants Agenda overview Technical instructions	RCO and guests
14:30 – 15:15	GLOBE Program 2020/2021 – what is planned ahead	Overview of the GLOBE Program development that is planned for next year	Tony Murphy, GLOBE Program Implementation Office
15 min	Break
15:30 – 17:00	Water Bodies Collaboration and GLOBE Hydrosphere – Let’s talk about Water	Combined session on collaboration around the topic of water: Presentations by students, teachers and scientists: “Let’s Do It!”, Tamara Banović, Ivica Štrbac and students, Omiš, Croatia “Rivers in Town: RIO School Project”, Sandro Sutti and Lorella Rigonat, Labter-Crea Mantova and GLOBE Italy Video submissions Discussion on the opportunities for international collaboration.	Selected students, teachers and scientists

Questions from participants can be asked in advance to the meeting sessions. Add your questions to the list by clicking on the button:

Questions Wanted!

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

28 th October, Wednesday GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 15:30	Market Place: The best of GLOBE presented by teachers	GLOBE Benefits the Environment: GLOBE activities that have direct impact on the environment or strengthen the environmental awareness of the local community GLOBE is a Platform for Collaboration: Examples of the collaborations that teachers and students made possible with GLOBE projects – from local to international level “GLOBE is a platform for collaboration”, Jasminka Dubravica, OŠ Valentin Klarin, Croatia “GLOBE KLASS+is”, Agne Jõgis, Rakvere Science Secondary School, Estonia “The GLOBE Program in Croatian Kindergartens”, Vesna Lampić, DV Potočnica, Croatia “Collaboration in the European Phenology Campaign with Wakelet”, Antonija Kojundžić, Ivana Frančić, OŠ Ivana Filipovića Osijek, Croatia “How can students explore the environment (running waters) - digital and analog?”, Sebastian Stuppan, High School Alpnach, Switzerland “How we helped our farmers!”, Marina Balažinec, 3rd Primary School Varazdin, Croatia “Tiny Forest”, Romana Průšová, Jana Hanáková, Moravské Budějovice, Czech Republic “Act of Blue”, Ramona Mercieca, Gozo, Malta Video submissions	Selected teachers and CCs

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

15 min	Break
15:45 – 16:45	GLOBE Science Café: Talks about science and life	Scientist and educators talk about their passion for GLOBE and about the connections that science can make to the young generation. Renata Matoničkin Kepčija, University of Zagreb, Croatia Daria Lehmann, GLOBE Switzerland Peter Falcon, NASA/Jet Propulsion Laboratory, USA Constantinos Cartalis, University of Athens, Greece Gunta Kalvane, University of Latvia, Riga The discussion will be live moderated. Participants can ask via chat.	Scientists and educators
16:45 – 17:15	Trainers and Mentor Trainers Certification Q&A	Q&A session on the new GLOBE Trainers and Mentor Trainers Certification that has been introduced this year: https://www.globe.gov/web/trainers Mostly for the GLOBE members who currently are in the role of a trainer or want to become trainers. Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	Education WG: Diana Garašić John Ristvey Marta Kingsland

Questions from participants can be asked in advance to the meeting sessions. Add your questions to the list by clicking on the button:

Questions Wanted!

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

29 th October, Thursday GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 15:30	Hello, we are GLOBE Students!	Students will invite us to their school and around! They will talk about how they observe trees, rivers, forests, clouds, lakes, soils and take care of the environment. Combined session of student research presentations and video submissions. “Benefits the Environment!”, Elementary school Dubovac, Karlovac, Croatia “GLOBE is a Platform for Collaboration!”, ČAG České Budějovice, Czech Republic “Time of budburst and dynamics of leaf growth in Tilia cordata Mill. at Varaždin and Belišće”, 3rd Primary School Varazdin, Croatia “Microbial Fuel Cell”, Senior High School E. Fermi Mantova, Italy “Dunboyne Clear Air”, Dunboyne Senior Primary School, Ireland “The pH and amount of rain together with temperatures during winter in an urban area of Malta”, St. Michael School, Malta “International Collaboration Malta – Israel”, Gozo, Malta Video submissions Questions from participants are most welcome!	GLOBE Students

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

15 min	Break
15:45 – 16:30	GLOBE Technology: What is new at GLOBE website	New development of the Apps, Data Entry, Visualizations and website in general. Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	David Overoye, SSAI, Technology WG
16:30 – 17:00	Curious Questions: Ask Region Coordination Office and GLOBE Program Implementation Office	Q&A to RCO and GIO Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	Europe and Eurasia RCO Tony Murphy, GLOBE Implementation Office
17:00 – 17:15	Closing of the Regional Meeting	Final words and adjourn	RCO

Questions from participants can be asked in advance to the meeting sessions. Add your questions to the list by clicking on the button:

Questions Wanted!